Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Lake Preston is a progressive business community, with value added agriculture, industry, and a wide variety of retail businesses; and,

Whereas, Lake Preston received its name from General John Fremont who discovered and named the lake in 1839 after Senator Preston of North Carolina; and,

Whereas, Lake Preston is known today as the Gateway to the Lakes and lies in close proximity to three of the glacial lakes; and,

Whereas, Lake Preston is an area abundant with wildlife, a paradise for hunters and fishermen; and,

Whereas, Now, state government is going on the road to the people of Lake Preston and the surrounding area in a unique program called "Capital for a Day;" and,

Whereas, "Capital for a Day" is designed to provide a local forum whereby an exchange of ideas, information, and concerns among the governor, cabinet officials, representatives for the private business sector, local elected officials, special interest groups, and the general public can occur:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 25, 2010, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighteenth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
